Your Open the Book Team Need You!

Some of the assemblies that the children really enjoy involve the telling of Bible stories through simple drama. These weekly assemblies, known as 'Open the Book', are led by a team of community volunteers who also often invite pupils to help them in their assemblies.

The children love to take part in the acting and the responses. Sadly, unless we can get a few more volunteers to replace two members of the current team who retire at Christmas then it is highly unlikely that Open the Book assemblies will continue in the spring term.

If you can spare half an hour on Friday mornings to help to support the remaining team we would really appreciate it. The role involves a small amount of acting whilst reading from a script and helping the children with simple costumes (often tea towels!) and reading their lines.

If you are interested in helping to support the school please could you contact Mrs Crowe (Lead Teacher) or the office. Thank you.
