Dear Parents,

Thank you to those of you who came on Thursday night to our parents consultation evening. Our apologies to parents of children in Malverns class who had to have their appointments cancelled. Those who have not yet made an alternative appointment to see Mrs Bailey, please speak to her after school and re-schedule your consultation meeting for a convenient time.

Should parents from any other classes still require an appointment please speak to your child's class teacher.

This Friday 23rd October is teacher training day and school will be closed for children. School re-opens on Monday 2nd November.

This year Worfield School will be supporting Operation Christmas Child - the Samaritans Purse shoe box appeal. Louise Presley-Turner (mother of Esme Y6 and Elliot Y2) has very generously volunteered to co-ordinate and organise the collection of items for the shoeboxes.

By donating a gift to put into the shoeboxes you and your child can make a difference at Christmas to a child in Africa, Eastern Europe, or Central Asia who ordinarily would not have received a Christmas gift.

The list of suggested gifts is shown on the reverse of this page. Leaflets giving more information are available from the school office.

Best wishes for a lovely weekend,

Claire Gaskin
Executive Headteacher

Smile for the Camera!!
